Family Fun

The Indiana History Center is the place to be Thursday evenings in July. Museum Nights on the Canal, held in conjunction with Concerts on the Canal, will offer free admission to the Indiana Experience exhibits, hands-on activities, and family-friendly programming from 4 to 8 p.m. July 4, 11, 18, and 25. Also taking place those nights is the organization's Concerts on the Canal from 6 to 8 p.m. The Stardust Terrace comes alive with live jazz, blues, classic rock, swing, and big-band music by local and regional favorites. Animal TLC

Most people want to provide the best healthcare for their pets, but when the week is full of soccer practices, ballet lessons, and routine errands, finding time to get to the veterinarian can be a challenge. Thankfully, all five Indianapolis-area Noah's Animal Hospitals offer solutions to help busy pet families. From the no-appointment-needed hours at the All Pet location on West Washington Street to late-evening slots at the Geist and Speedway hospitals, you can find a time that works. Weekend hours are available at all locations, including new Saturday hours at the Noah's hospital at 146th Street and Carey Road in Carmel. For emergencies or regular care, the 24-hour facility at 56th and Emerson is always open.
